Conditions for making up classes missed due to justified reasons:

Making up missed classes is only possible in the case of a student's illness documented by a medical certificate or other unforeseen reasons. The excuse for classes and crediting the material covered by lectures or exercises during the period of absence is made by the lecturer conducting the classes.

Both a student returning from dean's leave and a student repeating a year are required to attend all classes and take the exam. Only if the exam in a given year is graded at least satisfactory (3.0) can a student repeating a year due to a different subject be exempted from the obligation to attend classes and pass and pass the subject.
